THE MUSICAL WORLD FOR 1856.

VOLUME XIV.

WE COMMENCE THE NEW YEAR WITH A reduction of one third from our former subscription. We take this step to give our Journal the widest possible circulation. The price, then, hereafter will be Two Dollars per annum to all who pay in advance: to those who do not pay in advance (only) it will be three Dollars. This reduced subscription will still include, as a gift, a portrait of Mozart, which we have had specially engraved for this Journal; and which will serve as an excellent title-page embellishment for the music volume of the year 1856.

A Musical Noveltie will be commenced and published serially with the first number in January. The other valuable features of the Journal will remain as before, viz, four pages of fresh music weekly, pagged separately, which, bound at the end of the year, will form a volume worth $12; instructive musical reading; articles on vocal and instrumental culture; condensed musical news from all parts of the world.

The new department of General Literature is still in the same able hands which have already gained it so high a reputation. It comprises the best translations of the best things in French and other foreign journals; judicious selections from books and magazines; and generally one good story in every number.

City and Brooklyn subscribers are charged fifty cents extra for the expense of carrier. Canada subscribers pay twenty-six cents for the necessary pre-payment of American postage.

Any journal copying this entire announcement, and drawing Editorial attention to it before the close of January, 1856, will receive the Musical World in exchange for the same.
